ADDRESSING WORKFORCE AND INDUSTRY NEEDS

WORKER PREPARATION AND TRAINING

Workforce Resource Inc. (WRI) and the local Job Centers have access to hundreds of individuals from all skill levels who are looking for work opportunities. Whether these individuals are looking for immediate employment following a lay off or have just completed individualized job preparation, including combinations of assessments, career planning, and job readiness instruction, they are qualified and ready to work. WRI is also networked with local training providers including area Technical Colleges and Universities to offer valuable resources to assist you in addressing any short or long-term training needs you may identify for your current or emerging workforce. Contact us to find out about other services including On-the-Job Training and Work Experience to help fill your job openings.

WORKER RETENTION AND ADVANCEMENT

WRI professional staff provide on-going follow-up, follow-through and necessary on-site services to assure that employees placed through its services continue to be successful. For those who may be eligible, post program support allows individuals to maintain employment. WRI monitors performance and assists with corrective actions that may be desired by the employer to minimize turn-over and the need to take on the expense of new recruitment for replacement workers.

ABOUT WORKFORCE RESOURCE, INC.

Workforce Resource, Inc. (WRI) is a private non-profit corporation serving twenty-one counties in West Central and Northwest Wisconsin. Operating workforce development programs since 1983, WRI successfully manages the region's Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act program (WIOA) and West Central Wisconsin Job Centers. Since 2013 Workforce Resource has been the designated Wisconsin Works (W2) program operator and since 2015, the designated Food Share Employment and Training Program operator. In October 2017, WRI was designated the Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) service provider.
